JOSEPH,

By the Grace of God and the Favor of the Apostolic See,
Bishop of Cleveland.

To the Reverend Clergy,—Secular and Regular,—the Religious Communities and to all the Faithful of the Laity committed to Our Care,—Health and Greeting in the Lord!

Dearly Beloved Brethren—My first word to you on this day must needs be a word of heartfelt and warmest thanks for the generous response you have made to my appeal of a year ago. The combined and earnest efforts of pastors and people have made the first Seminary Collection of the Diocese of Cleveland a phenomenal success and have fully justified my confidence in placing the important work of providing for the education of the future priests of the Diocese into your hands and close to your hearts.

You know well what a good priest means to the Community in which he lives. A priest who is true to his holy vocation, and is filled with the spirit of his Divine Mission, exercises a power and an influence, the full extent of which Judgment Day alone will reveal. The priest is a man of God, who in obedience to a Divine Call has taken God for his portion and has consecrated his whole life to the work of the salvation of souls, committed by Christ to His Church. But the Holiness of his life he must be a supernatural leaven, purging out the corrupt tendencies of fallen human nature; he must be a safe pattern of a holy and a Christ-like life, never denying by his actions the words of his preaching; ever serving as an encouragement to the good, a warning to the careless and an irrefutable argument against the wicked. Like unto his Divine Master, whose mission he carries on, he must pass through the highways and the byways of human suffering and of human misery, doing good wherever he goes.

Today, the false principles of Naturalism, and Indifferentism in Religion are sapping the very foundations of Supernatural Faith, while unbridled Sensualism is destroying morality. All the great and powerful forces and public agencies that sway man's intellectual and moral and social life, such as the School, from the elementary grade to the highest class of the University, the Press, in its widest sense of every form of literary endeavor; the Stage, and all forms of public amusements; Politics, in all its various phases, would seem to be controlled by the enemy and are being pressed into service against God and God's Church.

Who then shall proclaim to the world the rights of God and the duties of man? Who shall preach virtue and denounce vice? Who shall become a living pattern of justice and a standing reproach to the ungodly? It is the Priest of God's Church, for he holds a Divine Mandate to teach and to sanctify mankind. To him Christ speaks in the person of His Apostles: "You are the Light of the World; You are the salt of the earth." (St. Matt. V. 13, 14.) Woe to him then if he hide the light and dwell in darkness! Woe to him if he has lost the savor and spread the pestilence of sin instead of the sweet odor of virtue! Such a one will become a curse to the Church, an execration to mankind, a traitor to his God, and damnation to himself. To him, more than to any other, apply those terrible words of Jesus Christ: "But he that shall scandalize one of these little ones that believe in Me, it were better for him that a millstone should be hanged about his neck and that he should be drowned in the depth of the sea. Woe to the world because of scandal, for it must needs be that scandal come, but nevertheless woe to that man by whom the scandal cometh!" (St. Matt. XVIII, 7, 8.)

What a responsibility is bound up in the person and the life of a priest! He must enter the arena to do battle against the forces of Hell. He must follow in the footsteps of the great Apostles and Missionaries, who started from under the shadow of the Cross to effect the conversion of Nations. This is indeed a mighty struggle; it is the old, old struggle, begun centuries ago when Lucifer unfurled the standard of rebellion against God. The name and the number of those who would uproot the Cross of Jesus Christ and tear out from the hearts of men the Faith of Jesus Christ is "Legion." God's priest must stand up against them all and meet them all and vanquish them all, in the name and through the power of Christ's word. This is a most difficult work; for even with great learning and with great sanctity it is difficult so to preach that persuasion follows upon conviction; that the mind is led captive; that the heart is carried away; that men shall bend under the weight of our word and strike their breast with contrition. It is most difficult to enlighten the ignorant, to counsel the doubting, to strengthen the weak and to raise the fallen.

Where then shall the priest be prepared for this difficult and far-reaching mission? In the Seminary. Years of study, years of self-discipline, and years of prayer are requisite to form such men. Hence the earnest and zealous care of the Church through all the ages to establish and maintain ecclesiastical seminaries and to make of them eminent schools of learning and nurseries of every priestly virtue and of apostolic zeal. Owing to the extraordinary growth of the Church in our country and the crying needs of multitudes clamoring for the ministrations of the priest, the course of preparation has at times been shortened and hurried, and while the great mass of our priests throughout the country have been exemplary and zealous men of God, and indefatigable beyond measure in their labors for the advancement of God's Kingdom, some here and there have somehow managed to enter the Holy Priesthood, who proved unworthy of their holy calling. These have brought shame and sorrow upon the Church and untold ruin to souls.

Bishops must use every conscientious care to satisfy themselves that priests accepted for service into their dioceses have clean records, but just as successful forgeries are perpetrated despite all the safeguards, whereby, with the aid of the best legal talent in the country, our big banking houses and great commercial institutions seek to protect themselves, even so, in isolated cases, a new Judas will arise to betray Christ's Church.

It is my irrevocable determination to insist on the closest scrutiny of the character of candidates for the Holy Priesthood and to provide the best possible training for their future work.

If, therefore, any irregularity of life, or serious defect of character should become manifest in any of the ecclesiastical students of this Diocese, I solemnly charge you, priests and people, with your sacred duty before God and man, to make it known to Us, that by timely action we may be preserved from the greatest of all evils, an unworthy priest.

The spiritual needs of this Diocese are tremendous and urgent. While there are at present two hundred and seventeen parish Churches with resident pastors, and sixteen Missions with Churches, in which Divine Service is held on certain Sundays within the month, there are within the limits of the Diocese of Cleveland, large stretches of territory and hundreds of towns and villages that have never been touched by the Church.

Many of the existing parishes have grown so extensive and populous that for the welfare of souls, they require division; many other parishes need the service of an assistant priest, while some of our good and faithful priests who have borne the heat and the burden of many years, are looking wistfully towards the golden dawn of Eternity, ready to exclaim with St. Paul: "I have fought the good fight, I have run my course, I have kept the faith. As to the rest, there is laid up for me a crown of justice, which the Lord, the just Judge, will render to me that day." (II. Tim. IV. 7, 8.)

Whither then shall I turn for help? It is to you, my dear faithful people, who have answered my first call with such generosity, that I confidently appeal again. Your piety and zeal must furnish me of your own flesh and blood for the service of the Sanctuary, and your generosity will supply the necessary funds for their training.

Second only to the work of the priest is the glorious work of our devoted Sisters, who spend themselves in sowing the seeds of Christian education in the hearts of our children, nursing our sick in body and soul, and looking after every form of human want and suffering for the love of the Master, Who said: "Amen I say to you, as long as you did it to one of the least of my brethren, you did it unto Me." They labor with us in the gospel and their names are written in the Book of Life.

A goodly number indeed have hearkened to the divine call for laborers in God's vineyard during the past year, but we are far short of being able to supply even the most urgent needs of the diocese. Many schools are ready for opening, but we lack the sisters to take charge of them. There are few schools in the diocese today that have their full quota of religious teachers. God grant many generous souls may hearken to the sweet invitation of the Divine Master and consecrate their lives to the most glorious and effective service it is possible to conceive.

Thousands of young men and young women listened to the call of their country during the trying days of the World War, now happily ended, and enlisted cheerfully in the service of their country. Christ, the Master, calls for service through His Church, while hundreds of souls are crying for help in their daily toil and struggle against sin and its awful consequences. Shall it be said that the kingdom of the world inspires greater devotion and service than the kingdom of God?

The fields are indeed white for the harvest but the laborers, alas, are few. Let us pray that the Lord send laborers into His harvest. This was Christ's own admonition to His Apostles; let us take it to heart, and let those who hear His tender voice not harden their hearts and shut their ears to the call. Faithful correspondence to God's call brings joy and happiness to parents and children alike. Conscious of the great need of our diocese and with all the ardor of my soul, do I plead more earnestly than ever for the fostering of vocations for the priesthood and for the religious communities of our diocese, and for the means wherewith to educate and train worthy young men in our seminaries. You have been generous in the past; let me urge you to be even more generous in our present needs.

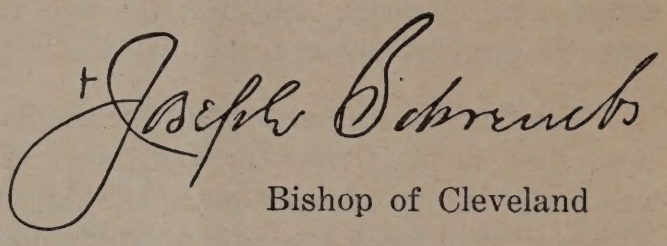
The entire month of October shall be set aside for the work of the Seminary Collection. Every pastor shall appoint efficient and zealous solicitors, who shall call upon every family in the district assigned to them to solicit a contribution of at least one dollar for the education of our seminarians. They will give each contributor of at least one dollar a receipt for his donation, and carefully note the name of the donor on the stub of the receipt-book. At the end of the month they will hand in the names, together with the amount of money collected by them, to their respective pastors. On the last Sunday of the month of October, there shall be taken up in every parish the general collection for the Seminary, so as to give those, unable to contribute one dollar, an opportunity of giving their mite. The average Sunday collection, however, may be deducted from the total amount and turned into the treasury of the parish. This general collection is to be announced on the previous Sunday. As Bishop of the Diocese, I promise to offer the Holy Sacrifice of Mass for the intentions of all contributors of at least one dollar, on every Monday of the year, and, once a month, on the first Fridays, for all solicitors.

The names of all contributors of at least one dollar, arranged in the order of parishes, will be published annually in book form. This Year Book of the Diocese will contain a historical record of all important events occurring in the Diocese during the year, together with other miscellaneous, interesting and useful information of a religious character, and will be distributed to all subscribers of at least one dollar.

It is my wish that each year, during the entire month, no other demand for money (excepting pew rent and ordinary Sunday collections) be made upon the people, so that the combined efforts of pastors and people shall be devoted to the success of this collection for the support of the ecclesiastical students of this Diocese.

May God's Blessings be with you and strengthen you in every good work.

Faithfully yours in Christ,



Bishop of Cleveland

This letter is to be read in all churches of the diocese on Sunday, September 30, and in all missions on the first Sunday of divine services thereafter.

By order of the Right Reverend Bishop.

P. J. O'CONNELL, Chancellor.

HISTORICAL REVIEW
OF THE PAST YEAR

DIAMOND JUBILEE

The Diamond Jubilee of the Dedication of the Cathedral was celebrated on November 7. A pontifical Mass was celebrated by Most Rev. Henry Moeller, D. D., Archbishop of Cincinnati, and the sermon was given by Rt. Rev. August Schwertner, D. D., Bishop of Wichita. In the evening a mass meeting was held in the Cleveland Public Auditorium. Addresses were made by Archbishop Moeller, Bishop Schrembs and Dr. Cavanaugh of Notre Dame University.

ORDINATIONS

During the year fifteen young men were ordained to the Holy Priesthood. Four others returned from Rome to take up their work in the Diocese.

DEATHS

The diocese mourns the loss of six priests who died during the past year:

Rt. Rev. Msgr. Edward Mears, LL. D., pastor of St. Columba's, Youngstown.
Rev. Julius Szepessy, pastor of St. Elizabeth's, Cleveland.
Rev. Peter Clancy, pastor of St. Augustine's, Barberton.
Rev. Michael Murphy, former Professor at St. Mary's Seminary.
Rev. Michael Halter, pastor of St. Mary's, West Park.
Rev. John I. Moran, pastor of the Sacred Heart Church, Youngstown.

A detailed sketch of their lives will be found toward the end of this book. May the Good Master, whom they faithfully served, grant them eternal reward and rest. —Amen.

NEW PARISHES

Twelve new parishes were organized, or received resident pastors during the past twelve months:

LORAIN—St. Vitus', St. Anthony's.
WADSWORTH—Sacred Heart.
YOUNGSTOWN—St. Dominic's, St. Brendan's.
NEWTON FALLS—St. Joseph's.
EAST LIVERPOOL—St. Ann's.
WICKLIFFE—Our Lady of Mt. Carmel.
CLEVELAND—St. Charles', St. Timothy's, St. Angela's.
KENMORE—Immaculate Conception.

CHURCH CONSECRATIONS

In the spring of this year two Cleveland churches were solemnly consecrated—St. Agnes' and St. Thomas Aquinas'. These events will live long in the memory of the favored parishioners.

CHURCH DEDICATIONS

The following churches were dedicated during the past year:

EAST YOUNGSTOWN—St. John the Baptist.
COLLINWOOD—St. Joseph's.
BARBERTON—Sacred Heart.
CLEVELAND—St. Luke's.
RIDGEVILLE—St. Peter's.
CLEVELAND—St. Margaret's.
CLEVELAND—Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament.

BLESSING OF NEW SCHOOLS

The Rt. Rev. Bishop officiated at the blessing of the following schools:

CLEVELAND—St. Boniface's.
NORTH CANTON—St. Paul's.
LORAIN—Nativity of the B. V. M.

"ROSEMARY," the new home for crippled children, was also blessed during the past year.

NEW RELIGIOUS ORDER IN CLEVELAND

The new Convent of the Carmelite Sisters was established in May. It is situated on Lakeview Road, near St. Clair Avenue.

NOTABLE DONATIONS TO CATHOLIC CHARITIES

During the year two notable donations were made to Catholic Charities:

Mr. Thomas K. Maher gave a completely equipped farm of two hundred and sixty acres to the Sisters of Charity. The farm is situated between Elyria and Oberlin.

The Misses Emma and Catharine Smith donated twenty-five thousand dollars to the Church of Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament, recently established for the colored Catholics of Cleveland.

Report of the Director of Charities

of the Diocese of Cleveland

The object of the office of the Diocesan Director of Charities is to co-ordinate and systematize the charities of the Diocese. The office acts as a clearing house for all the charitable effort of the Diocese of Cleveland. A central office is located at 609 Electric Building, Cleveland, Ohio; branch offices are maintained at Akron through the Catholic Service League, 245 South High Street; at Canton through the Catholic Community League, 417 McKinley Avenue; at Youngstown through the Social Service Department of St. Elizabeth's Hospital.

The central office acts as a clearing house for the admission of all children to institutional care; it makes all the preliminary investigation, cares for the dismissal of children, the collection of board for children, placements in boarding, free, and adoptive homes.

The central office assists in the policy determination of the hospitals of the Diocese, it provides the representation of Catholic organizations in the Community Chest, and gives direction to Catholic organizations doing non-institutional work.

The charitable and social activities of the Diocese cover the following fields:

1. Child welfare work.
2. Health work.
3. Family relief work.
4. Recreational work.
5. Correctional work for delinquents.
6. Care of the dependent aged.

CHILD WELFARE

In the field of child welfare there are the following institutions for the care of dependent children:

St. Vincent's Orphanage for Boys.
St. Joseph's Orphanage for Girls.
St. Mary's Institute.
St. Ann's Infant Asylum.
St. Louis Orphanage for Boys.
St. Anthony's Home for Working Boys.
The Preservation Department of the Good Shepherd Convent.
Catherine Horstman Training Home for Girls.
Merrick House Day Nursery.

Applications to enter all of these institutions are received at the central office, each application is investigated and disposition made of the children if invesigation shows the need of institutional care. It is the policy of the Catholic Charities to admit to institutions only such children as cannot be cared for in any other way. During the past year there were received at the central office applications to place 2,168 children. Of this number 736 children were admitted, and the rest were cared for by administering relief to families through relief giving organizations, by prevailing on relatives to care for them, through prosecution of neglecting and deserting parents, etc.

A statistical report of the children's institutions for the year 1923 is as follows:

Applications for admission to orphanages in 1922		2168
Children in institutions January 1, 1922		758
Children admitted during 1922		736

In addition to the institutions enumerated above there has been established, during the year, a home for crippled children known as "Rosemary," The Johanna Grasselli Home for Crippled Children, with a present capacity of 17 children. This home has been operating full capacity since its establishment and doing a most remarkable work in the treatment, education, and the instruction of crippled children. The home consists of six acres on Euclid Avenue; the building and all alterations, such as the installation of an elevator, the building of a chapel, etc., were donated by Mr. C. A. Grasselli, in memory of his deceased wife, Johanna Grasselli.

HEALTH WORK

There are in the Diocese of Cleveland the following hospitals:

CLEVELAND—St. Vincent's Charity Hospital, St. John's Hospital, St. Alexis Hospital, St. Ann's Maternity Hospital.
CANTON—Mercy Hospital.
LORAIN—St. Joseph's Hospital.
YOUNGSTOWN—St. Elizabeth's Hospital.

Charity Hospital and St. Alexis in Cleveland, and St. Elizabeth's Hospital in Youngstown, conduct free dispensaries and social service departments.

A statistical report of the hospitals is as follows:

Full pay patients	5,331
Part pay patients	13,448
Free patients	5,495
Total number of patients	24,274
Number of days care	339,976

FAMILY RELIEF WORK

In the city of Cleveland, relief given to the poor in their homes is provided through the Associated Charities, the civic family organization of the city, whose funds are provided from the Community Chest. Relief work of a similar nature is also done by the St. Vincent De Paul Society, and the Christ Child Society, but in these cases the relief given is usually supplementary to that furnished by the Associated Charities. Since there are frequently problems of a spiritual nature connected with material relief problems, it is advisable that each parish have an organization to keep in close touch with the poor of their respective parishes. Outside of the city of Cleveland, relief work is done by the Catholic Service League in Akron, and by the Catholic Community League in Canton, and by various organizations in the individual parishes. However, there is no uniform method of handling relief in the various parishes of the Diocese, and no systematic organization has been effected, outside the city of Cleveland, except in the districts of Akron, Canton, and Youngstown. The Catholic Service League of Akron has effected the organization of district branches in Barberton and Cuyahoga Falls.

RECREATIONAL AND SOCIAL WORK

There are in the Diocese a number of organizations doing social and recreational work for young people. The Merrick House, a Catholic social settlement, during 1922, had an attendance in the various classes and clubs of more than 31,000. Classes and clubs covering every phase of recreational work are included in their program. A community house is conducted by the Catholic Service League of Akron, and there is one in Canton conducted by the Catholic Community League. Since the close of 1922 a community house has been established in Youngstown, under the auspices of the Catholic Daughters of America. A home for girls and young women with recreational and social facilities has been conducted for a great many years, at 2517 E. 20th Street, Cleveland, under the name of St. Mary's Home. Another is being established on the West Side under the auspices of the Sisters of Notre Dame.

CORRECTIONAL WORK FOR DELINQUENTS

Correctional work for delinquents in the Diocese is performed by the St. Vincent De Paul Society in the cities of Cleveland and Youngstown, and by the Service Leagues in Akron and Canton. In the city of Cleveland there are twenty-one conferences of the St. Vincent De Paul Society maintaining an office with three full-time workers in the Juvenile Court. Through reference back to members of the individual conference, this office does correctional work with children coming into Juvenile Court, and follows up the boys and girls released from state and city institutions. Youngstown, Canton, and Akron are doing similar work through the Community Leagues and the St. Vincent De Paul Society. The Sisters of the Good Shepherd conduct an institution for the moral reformation of girls and women in the city of Cleveland. Some correctional work for boys is done at St. Anthony's Home for Working Boys, and for girls at the Catherine Horstman Training Home.

CARE OF DEPENDENT AGED

The only systematic care for the aged poor is given by the Home for the Aged, conducted by the Little Sisters of the Poor, at E. 22d Street and Scovill Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio. This institution does not participate in the Cleveland Community Chest funds. The Sisters support the institution by personal solicitation, as they cannot participate in a financial federation, according to the provisions of their rule.

FINANCES

The current expense of the Catholic institutions in Cleveland, with the exception of the Home for the Aged, is supplied by the Cleveland Community Fund. The Catholic charitable and social work in Akron, Canton, Youngstown, and Barberton is supported by their respective Community Chests. St. Louis Orphanage is supported by the Catholic Charities Corporation. The cost of the Catholic Charities of the Diocese of Cleveland, and the sources from which funds are obtained are as follows:

Total budget	$1,849,468
Earnings	1,231,760
Endowments and donations	92,259
Community Chests and the Catholic Charities Corp.	525,449

CATHOLIC CHARITIES CORPORATION OF CLEVELAND

The Catholic Charities Corporation of Cleveland is an organization incorporated under the laws of the State of Ohio, governed by a Board of Trustees of whom the Rt. Rev. Bishop is the chairman, acting through an Executive Commiteee of seven members. All actions of the Corporation are subject to the approval of the Rt. Rev. Bishop. The organization is based on a membership plan, members paying annual dues of 12, 20, 50, 100 and 200 dollars according to the various classifications. Those giving less amounts are listed among the contributors of the organization. The Corporation has acquired 183 acres of land situated eight miles from the Public Square in Cleveland, as the site for a new children's village which will replace the present orphanages. There is a membership of 13,000, and a contributors' list of some 4,000 more. The assets of the Corporation amount to more than a half-million dollars. The Corporation is organized to care for the capital expense entailed by the erection of new buildings, the expansion of Catholic Charities throughout the Diocese, and the support of Catholic charitable works that do not derive their funds from the respective Community Chests in the Diocese.

Very great assistance is being rendered by the St. Vincent De Paul Society, Christ Child Society, Catholic College Alumnae, Catholic Daughters of America, and the Guilds of St. Vincent's Orphanage, St. Joseph's Orphanage, St. Anthony's Home, and St. Mary's Institute.

The above statement, which is only a synopsis of the Catholic Charities of the Diocese of Cleveland, is respectively submitted to Your Lordship.

Obediently yours in Xto.,

REV. C. H. LEBLOND, Director.

Report of the Superintendent of Parish Schools

For the Scholastic Year 1922-1923

To the Right Reverend Joseph Schrembs, D. D.,
Bishop of Cleveland—

The Catholic School System of the Diocese of Cleveland is manifesting a steady and healthy growth. Since the last report of two years ago (making allowance for the three counties ceded to the Diocese of Toledo) there has been an increase in elementary school enrollment of 5,000. A number of new schools have been built, many have been remodelled, several are under construction and quite a few have been projected.

Reckoning the usual one-fifth of the population as of school age, we may estimate the total number of Catholic children at about 100,000. Of these 57,440 are being cared for in 127 parish schools and 16 convent schools and institutions. There is an enrollment of 720 in commercial schools and about 3,000 in high schools. The goal set for the Diocese of "Every Catholic Child in a Catholic School" is by no means realized as yet, but it is decidedly within sight.

BUILDING AND MAINTENANCE

The general rise in the cost of building has been a serious factor to contend with in the expansion of our School System. The average cost of an elementary school room today is $12,000.00—just about twice what it was ten years ago. Since the school rooms are designed to care for not more than forty children, the building outlay may be reckoned as $300.00 per child.

The average maintenance per child throughout the diocese is $15.00. No tuition is charged in any of our parish schools—this by force of the state laws on the subject, the recent decree of the Right Reverend Bishop and the tradition of the Diocese. Hence the Parish is the sole support of the Parish School. The people have always co-operated with their Pastors in such a manner that the maintenance of the Parish School, although always a burden, has never been a problem.

In general the physical conditions of the schools are excellent. Occasionally certain features, notably the sanitary arrangements, do not receive the supervision which could be desired. It would be well for our Pastors to glance over from time to time the conservative and wise laws of the Ohio Code which have reference to the provisions for schools.

There are in actual use a few basement school rooms for teaching purposes. The Building Code of the State expressly forbids the use of any space the floor of which is below the ground level. Invariably the health and efficiency of teacher and children suffer. Such rooms can not be too strongly condemned. They should not be resorted to even as temporary arrangements. Portable school rooms are far preferable. Anyone who would remain in a basement school-room for either the morning or afternoon session would not need to be convinced of the unhealthiness of such rooms. All of these should be eliminated at once.

HEALTH ACTIVITIES

In a School System embracing so many counties and cities, a uniform health program is neither possible nor desirable. Every school, of course, should have a regular doctor and nurse in attendance. Outside of the city of Cleveland most schools have such medical attention, which is supplied by county, city or private agencies. The situation in the city of Cleveland is altogether unsatisfactory. Some work has been done by the City Board of Health. The Cleveland Nutrition Clinic has carried on a campaign of education amongst the teachers and has established clinics in several schools. But aside from this, little has been done. A plan is now under way whereby the City Health Department may take over the medical supervision of the Parish Schools of Cleveland. It is earnestly hoped that this plan does not miscarry.

THE TEACHERS

At present the average number of pupils per teacher is 48. No allowance is here made for the work of substitutes or supervisors. The average class, by universal agreement, should not consist of more than forty. Taking forty as our average, we should have 1,436 teachers in our elementary schools—our actual number is 1,194. We have immediate need of 242 teachers and substitutes to the number of 60. In other words we could place immediately 300 more teachers. If we are to attain our goal of 100,000 pupils, we will need at least 2,500 teachers, more than twice our present number.

Of this total of 1,194 teachers, about 600 are Sisters belonging to our diocesan communities. When we consider the needs of the various dioceses in which are located the mother-houses of the other religious communities, we may well take stock of the future. There seems no good reason why some, if not all, of these religious communities whose mother-house is outside the Diocese should not establish mother-houses in this Diocese of Cleveland. This would insure more permanency in our School System and would make for more vocations.

SECULAR TEACHERS

Every effort is being made to increase the number of vocations to the religious life. Nevertheless the number of vocations is not keeping pace with our growing needs. At present 125 young ladies are co-operating with our Sisters in the work of Catholic education. Many more are needed. There are those who believe that the Parish School will have to adopt some such system as is now in force in our Catholic Hospitals where the work is supervised and controlled by the Sisters with an adequate staff of secular nurses working under their direction.

This plan is not improbable. The Notre Dame and Ursuline Sisters of Cleveland have received charters empowering them to carry on the work of State Normal Schools and to grant State Normal certificates. Catholic young ladies who are attracted to teaching life but who do no care to enter the Convent can be trained in either of these institutions and would make worthy Catholic teachers. Of course such a plan would increase the maintenance cost of the Parish School, because the salaries paid these young ladies would have to approximate the salaries paid those engaged in public school work. Yet, as our older parishes emerge from their long struggle with their parish debt, they may find ways and means to make such a plan possible. To put the matter plainly, the number of teaching Sisters is limited by the number of vocations. The number of secular teachers is limited only by the financial condition of the parish.

CERTIFICATION OF TEACHERS

All the teaching Sisters of Cleveland Diocese either have received their State-wide teaching certificates or are rapidly qualifying for them. This work is being carried on partly the better to equip our teachers, partly as a precautionary measure. All the Sisters are taking various courses, both regular and extension, in their Mother-houses. It is hoped, however, that after a year or so the Sisters may be able to diminish both the number and the length of such courses so that their free time during the year may be really free time and that their summer vacations may be really vacations.

HIGH SCHOOLS

There are forty-two commercial and high schools. Two of these, Cathedral Latin, conducted by the Brothers of Mary, and St. Ignatius, conducted by the Jesuit Fathers, are exclusively for boys. Both these institutions are members of the North Central Conference. The Girls' Catholic High School is a free school conducted by the Four Diocesan Communities and financed by the Cathedral Parish and the Catholic Daughters of America. All of the Convent high schools and some of the Parish high schools are accredited at Columbus. Several are affiliated with the Catholic University at Washington.

Since the passage of the law obligating all children to remain in school until the completion of their sixteenth year, the problem of the Catholic high school has been pressing. Are we to provide Catholic high schools for all our children or not? If so, how are they to be financed and how provided with teachers?

Leaving aside the question of finance, let us consider only the matter of teachers. A high school teacher should be a college graduate and should have had certain professional courses in the branch which she is to teach. Have we the teachers to spare for this prerequisite college and normal training? If the teachers take this training chiefly through extension work while continuing their teaching in the grades, their teaching efficiency is lessened and their health is impaired.

Moreover, since the work of the high school teacher is departmental and since the number of pupils in a high school class should never exceed thirty, the average number of pupils per teacher is twenty or less. Thus the average high school requires a teaching staff at least twice that of the average grade school. As our supply of teachers is limited and very definite, it is evident that high school expansion at this time in the Diocese of Cleveland entails grade school diminution.

It will suffice to call attention to these fundamental points.

ASSIGNMENT OF TEACHERS

Since the supply of Sisters is insufficient for present needs, a certain number of secular teachers must be employed. Certain Pastors, by refusing to accept secular teachers, have prevented the opening of new schools or have forced other Pastors to take more than their fair proportion of secular teachers. Certain secular teachers have been employed who were not competent to teach. To remedy this double difficulty, the Superintendent suggests that the yearly appointments of all teachers, both religious and secular, be subject to the previous approval of the School Board.

CONCLUSION

The tables which follow are taken from the statistics of June, 1923. They are an impressive tribute to the zeal of the Pastors, the sacrifice of the Sisters and the generosity of the people of Cleveland Diocese. With all co-operating in the future as in the past the success of our Catholic School System will be assured.

This Report however would not be complete if due acknowledgement were not made to the Right Reverend Bishop of the Diocese for the support which he has given the School Administration, for his farsightedness in discerning the problems of the schools, for the zeal and energy with which he has grappled with those problems and for the splendid encouragement which he has shown all who have been engaged in the work of teaching little children.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN R. HAGAN, Superintendent of Schools.

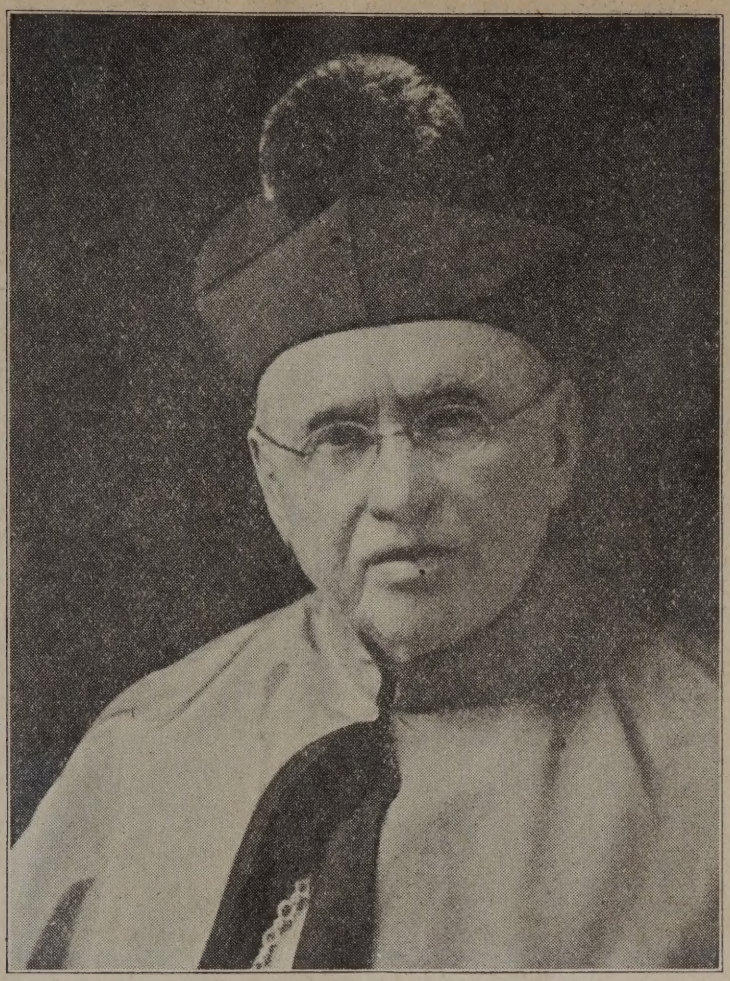
REV. E. W. J. LINDESMITH
Chaplain U. S. Army

Father Lindesmith was born in Center Township, Columbiana County, Ohio, September 7, 1827. His early education was meager and was obtained under difficulties in the log cabin schools of that day.

He entered St. Mary's Seminary, Cleveland, on September 18, 1849, and was ordained to the priesthood by Rt. Rev. Amadeus Rappe, in St. John's Cathedral, on July 8, 1855. He celebrated his first Mass at his home parish, the Church of St. Phillip in Dungannon. In 1858 he became pastor of St. John's Church, Canton, Ohio, where he remained for ten years, during which time he extended his field of labors to include many missions. In 1868 he was transferred to Alliance. In 1872 he took charge of Leetonia with Salem and East Palestine as missions. He remained at Leetonia until 1880, when he was commissioned a chaplain in the United States Army by President Hayes. He set out on July 22, 1880, to report to Gen. Nelson A. Miles who was in command of Fort Keogh, Mont. The Sioux Indian wars were in progress and the chaplain found life on the Western plains anything but a soft berth.

He retired from active service in the army on September 7, 1891, and immediately returned to the Cleveland diocese to continue his work as a parish priest. He spent two years in Dungannon, and then went to Doylestown, where he remained until 1908, when he was transferred to act as chaplain in St. Ann's Maternity Hospital. Here he remained until his death, February, 6, 1922.



RT. REV. MONSIGNOR EDWARD MEARS, LL. D.

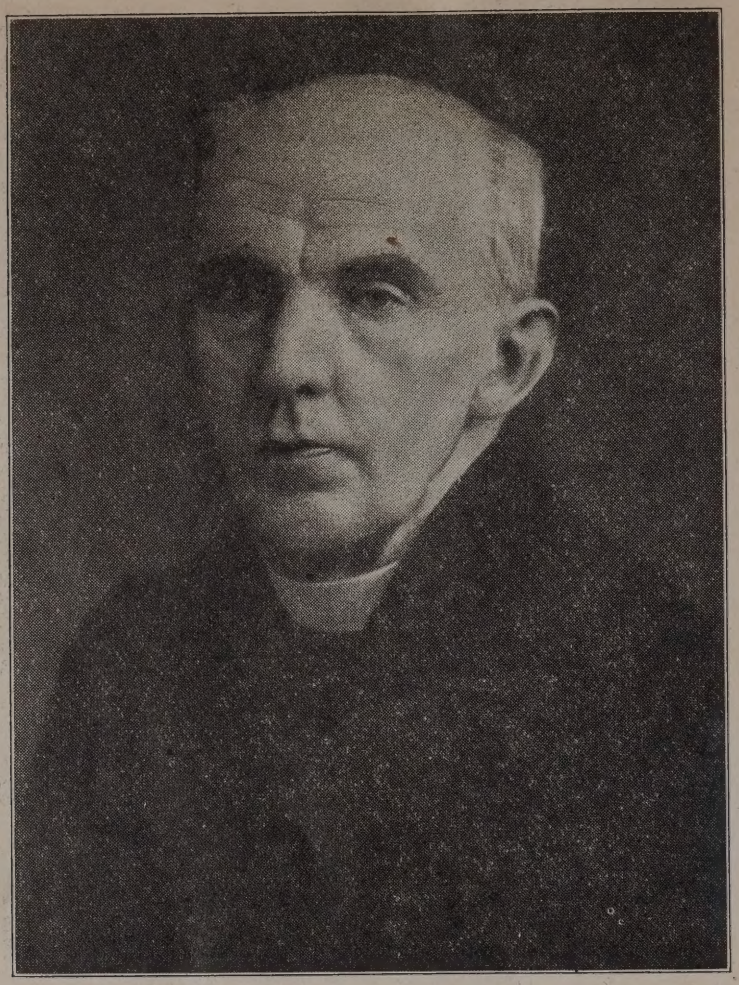
Easter eve of the year 1923 marked the passing of that venerable patriarch of the Cleveland diocese, Father Mears. He was born at Ballina, County Mayo, Ireland, on July 18, 1844, and remained on his native soil until he emigrated to America and settled at Toledo in his early boyhood. Expressing a desire to serve God in the sanctuary, he entered Notre Dame University in 1859 and completed his course at the Indiana Institution in 1862; four years later he became a student at St. Mary's Seminary, from which he was ordained to the priesthood by Bishop Amadeus Rappe on March 7, 1869.

Full of priestly fervor, he set forth on his mission. Successive appointments found him as assistant at the Cathedral in Cleveland, at Bellevue and Clyde and later at Crestline, and prior to his coming to Youngstown he was stationed at St. Augustine's Church, Cleveland, and subsequently as secretary to Bishop Gilmour.

Father Mears assumed the pastorate of St. Columba's in July, 1877. It is impossible to enumerate all he accomplished for Catholicity in Youngstown, suffice it to say, however, that he was instrumental in the erection of every new parish, laid deeply the foundation of the Faith in the Mahoning Valley, displayed a remarkable interest in all civic affairs, and ministered to his flock as a true priest of God for 55 years. He remodeled his school, promoted the erection of the Ursuline Convent and was the prime mover in the establishment of St. Elizabeth's Hospital. The present St. Columba's Church is a monument to his memory.

In 1919 he celebrated his golden jubilee to the Holy Priesthood, and in 1920 he was appointed Dean by Bishop Farrelly. Duquesne University, Pittsburg, conferred the honorary title of Doctor of Laws on Father Mears in 1919. In April, 1922, he was elevated to the office and title of Rt. Rev. Monsignor by Pope Pius XI.

Failing health for the last few years of his life aroused the sympathy of all those who had experienced the comfort of his priestly ministrations, and when, on Saturday evening, March 31, 1923, the bell of St. Columba's Church tolled to mark the passing of Father Mears, all Youngstown realized that the humble, kindly priest had gone to his reward and bowed its head in reverential sorrow.



REV. JOSEPH ROMER

Father Joseph Romer was born in Switzerland, August 27, 1841. He finished his theological studies in St. Mary's Seminary, Cleveland, Ohio. On the 4th of July, 1875, he was ordained by the Rt. Rev. Bishop Fitzgerald, of Little Rock, Arkansas, during the absence of Bishop Gilmour.

Father Romer's first assignment was North Amherst, Ohio, from July 1875 to June, 1899. Lorain was attended by him as a mission from February, 1878, to July, 1884.

In North Amherst he built a pastoral residence. A school was also established by him, taught by lay teachers.

In Lorain he built two churches. Father Romer was assigned to the chaplaincy of Mt. St. Mary's Institute, Buckeye Road, in 1899, where he remained until his death.

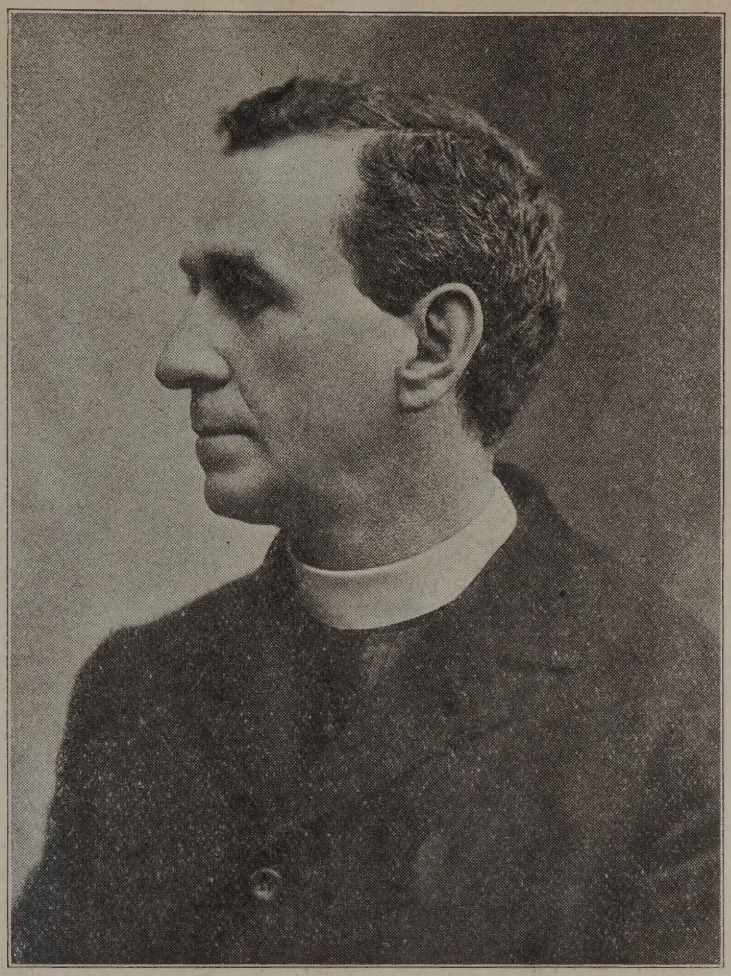
Father Romer was chaplain at Mt. St. Mary's Institution for over 20 years. Ever zealous for the sanctification of souls, perhaps not so much by his words as by his holy life.

Those who conversed with him will agree that they never heard a single word against charity from his lips.

Those who had the privilege to watch him pray unobserved, were greatly edified. They saw a saint at prayer. Though Father Romer was unable to say Mass for about a year before his death, he never missed assisting at it in the sanctuary.

By receiving Holy Communion daily, he left an indelible mark on the inmates of this institution.

Having met with an accident, it was necessary to take him to St. Alexis' Hospital, where, after a fervent preparation for death, this saintly priest breathed forth his soul into the hands of His creator, November 13, 1921.



REV. MICHAEL J. MURPHY

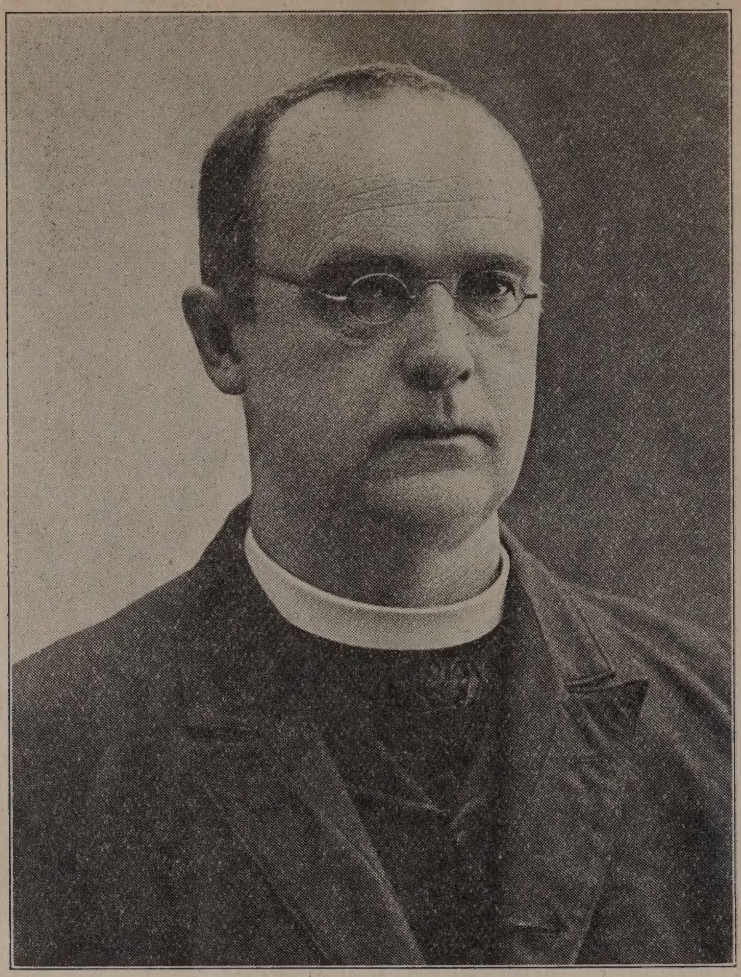
The Rev. Michael J. Murphy was born in Buffalo, N. Y., August 29, 1852. He was the eldest son of William Murphy and Mary O'Neill. The family moved to Cleveland when he was about ten years old, where he attended the Cathedral School. At the close of his studies there he went to the diocesan college at Louisville, O. At the end of his college course he entered St. Mary's Seminary here, from which he was ordained July 5, 1876. During his course in the seminary, at the request of the late Father Westerholt, he taught English to the Sisters lately come from Germany, who were then founding Notre Dame Academy at the corner of Superior and Dodge Streets.

His first charge was Shelby and missions and the year after Warren and missions, the latter numbering some fifteen and as many more smaller ones as the pastor should be able to discover. In 1879 Father Murphy was transferred to St. Augustine's on the South Side. While there one of his chief interests was his school. He was appointed by Bishop Gilmour to the Diocesan School Board and was very active in his service.

In 1889 he was sent by Bishop Gilmour to St. Mary's Seminary as Professor of Sacred Scripture, Church History and Sacred Eloquence. While devoted to his classes in the seminary he was always ready to lend an assisting hand to pastors who asked his help. As one of these remarked, it was not so much the help that Father Murphy gave, as the sympathy with which he gave it. His seminary days were perhaps the most congenial of his service. He was thought of as a born student and professor and with his books, his classes and his associates, principally the late Doctor Moes and Doctor TePas and Monsignor O'Connell, at present Vicar-General at Toledo, the years went by only too quickly.

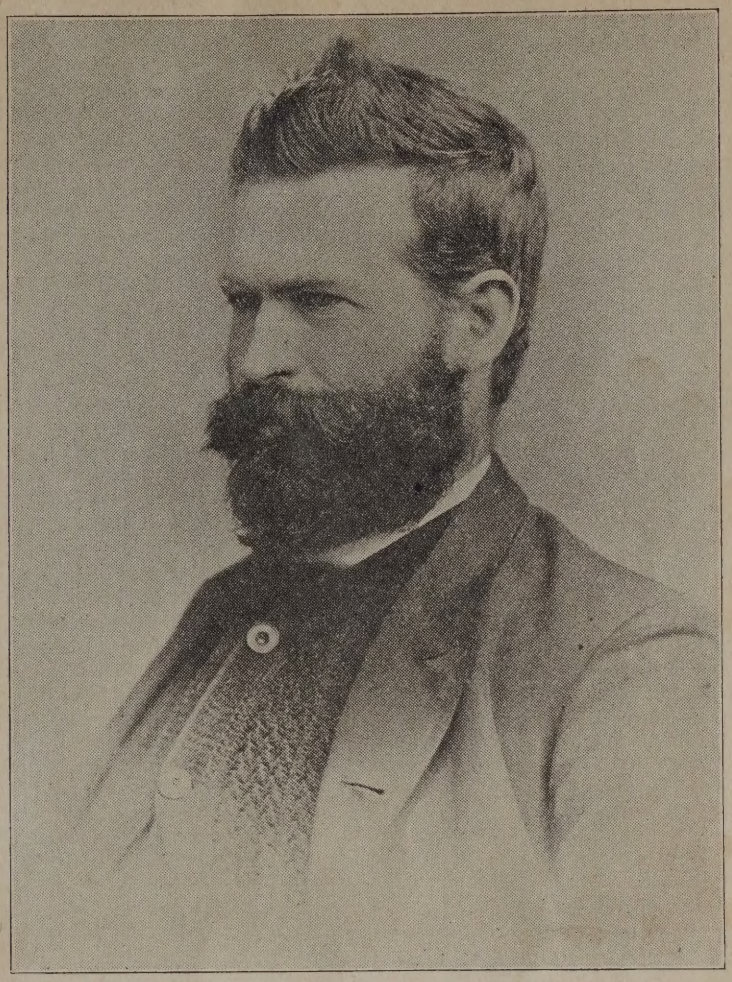
In 1898 his health first gave signs of a serious break and after a few vain attempts to continue, having been generously assisted in the interval by the late Rev. Doctor Farrell, who substituted for him, he was finally obliged to retire in 1902. During the long period of his illness it was the seminary days, chiefly his associates, the careers of the students whose names and progress in the seminary he never forgot, that made up most of his reminiscenses as occasion would prompt.

Father Murphy died January 29, 1923. The funeral was held from the Immaculate Conception Church, Cleveland, the pastor of which is the Rev. George F. Murphy, D. D., the brother of the deceased, with whom he spent the greater part of the last ten years.



REV. THOMAS F. McGUIRE

The Rev. Thomas F. McGuire was born November 6, 1847, at Birr, Kings County, Ireland. He was a Christian Brother for some years and taught in the schools of Louisville. He studied for the priesthood at Bardstown, Kentucky, and at St. Mary's Seminary. Upon the completion of his studies he was ordained July 1, 1883, by Bishop Gilmour. He was stationed at St. Mary's Corners, Harrisburg, Grafton, Berea and Momineetown, and in 1911 was compelled by ill health to resign. Returning to the Diocese of Louisville, Kentucky, where he had spent most of his early life and where he had many friends and relatives, he rendered priestly service there for the last ten years of his life. He died in Charity Hospital, Junction City, Colorado, September 15, 1922.



REV. JOHN F. McMAHON

The Rev. John F. McMahon was born October 6, 1860, in New Lisbon, Ohio. He studied for the priesthood at Allegheny, New York, and at St. Mary's Seminary, Cleveland. Upon the completion of his studies he was ordained November 11, 1883, by Bishop Gilmour. He was stationed at Toussaint from 1883 to 1886; at Alliance from 1886 to 1900, and at Salineville from 1900 to the time of his death, September, 1922. He was a man of scholarly attainments, above the ordinary; knew many modern languages, was a talented musician, and had his health not been impaired some years ago he would undoubtedly have done excellent service in a larger field than the one that occupied his later years.

REV. JOHN BERTEMES

Father John Bertemes was born December 24, 1861, at Urspelt, Luxemburg. He studied for the priesthood at Luxemburg, and at St. Mary's Seminary, Cleveland. He was ordained by Bishop Gilmour, December 19, 1888.

His appointments included New Cleveland, Leipsic, Wellington, Sheffield, Amherst, Peru, Navarre and Independence.

In May, 1920, he resigned and returned to his native Luxemburg, where he died February 15, 1922.

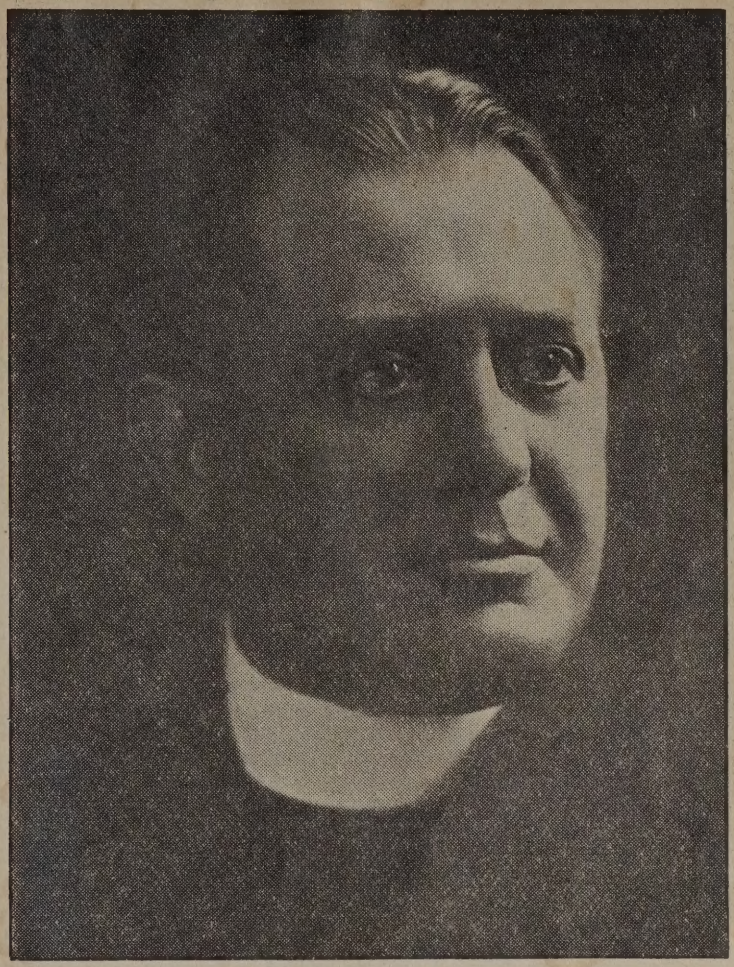
REV. PETER J. CLANCY

Rev. Peter J. Clancy was born at Franklin, Pennsylvania, on May 30, 1868. He made his classical studies at St. Bonaventure's College, Allegheny, N. Y. He studied philosophy at St. Mary's Seminary, Cleveland. He completed his theological training at Sandwich and was ordained to the holy priesthood June 15, 1895, by the Rt. Rev. Dennis O'Connor, D. D., Bishop of London, Ontario, later Archbishop of Toronto. He affiliated himself to the diocese of Galveston, Texas. His first appointment was as assistant at St. Patrick's Church, Galveston. In 1897 he was appointed pastor of the Church of the Assumption at Waco, Texas, by Rt. Rev. N. A. Gallagher, Bishop of Galveston. In May, 1910, he returned to the Cleveland diocese and for two months was stationed at St. Augustine's Church, Cleveland. In July, 1910, he was appointed pastor of the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Grafton, Ohio.. He remained there until October, 1914, when he was appointed pastor of St. Mary's, Norwalk, Ohio. In 1918 he became pastor of the Immaculate Conception Church of Ravenna, Ohio. On April 27, 1922, he was appointed pastor of St. Augustine's Church, Barberton, Ohio. He died February 12, 1923.

REV. JOSEPH M. PAULUS

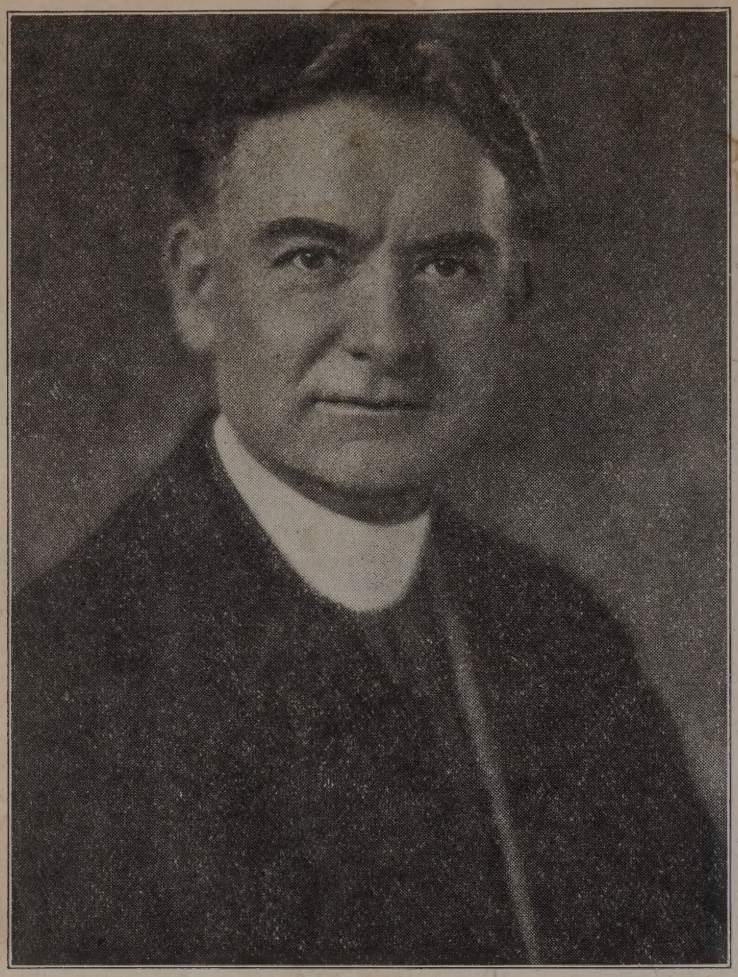
The Rev. Joseph M. Paulus was born in Suffield, O., on February 18, 1871. He attended St. Joseph Parochial School, St. Ignatius' College and St. Mary's Seminary and on June 4, 1898, was ordained to the priesthood by Bishop Horstmann and said his first Mass in his home parish the following day. Immedately thereafter Father Paulus was appointed pastor of Payne, Ohio, and during his pastorate the new church was erected. Father Paulus also attended two missions from Payne.

His next appointment was the organization of St. Paul's parish, Canton, Ohio. Later he was called to West Park, Cleveland, and after a brief pastorate there was transfered to St. Michael's Church of Cleveland to succeed the late Bishop Koudelka, from which parish he resigned one year later to accept the appointment of Professor of Moral Theology at St. Mary's Seminary. After two years' service he obtained a leave of absence to regain his health and took a trip around the world. His next assignment was to St. Bernard's, Akron, in September, 1915, to assume the duties of pastor. During his brief guardianship of his parish he accomplished much, particularly as an organizer, namely such as St. Ann's Christian Mother Society, the Holy Name Society (two of the largest that ever existed in the parish), beautifying the exterior of the church property and particularly the old St. Bernard's Cemetery, together with the improvements of the church auditorium proper, and the chapel he has built a monument for himself within the short time he was in Akron.



REV. JULIUS SZEPESSY

Rev. Father Julius Szepessy was born in the town of Tallya, County Zemplen, Hungary, April 23, 1875. He received his college and seminary education at Kassa. He was ordained priest at Kassa, June 29, 1899. After his ordination he worked a few years in the diocese of Kassa; he came to Cleveland July, 1906, as assistant to Rev. Charles Boehm. After the departure of Father Boehm to missionary fields, Father Szepessy was appointed to St. Elizabeth's Church as temporary pastor in September, 1907, which position he filled until his death, on the 23rd of December, 1922. He built the present St. Elizabeth's Hall and the new church, which ranks among the very finest of the churches of Cleveland.



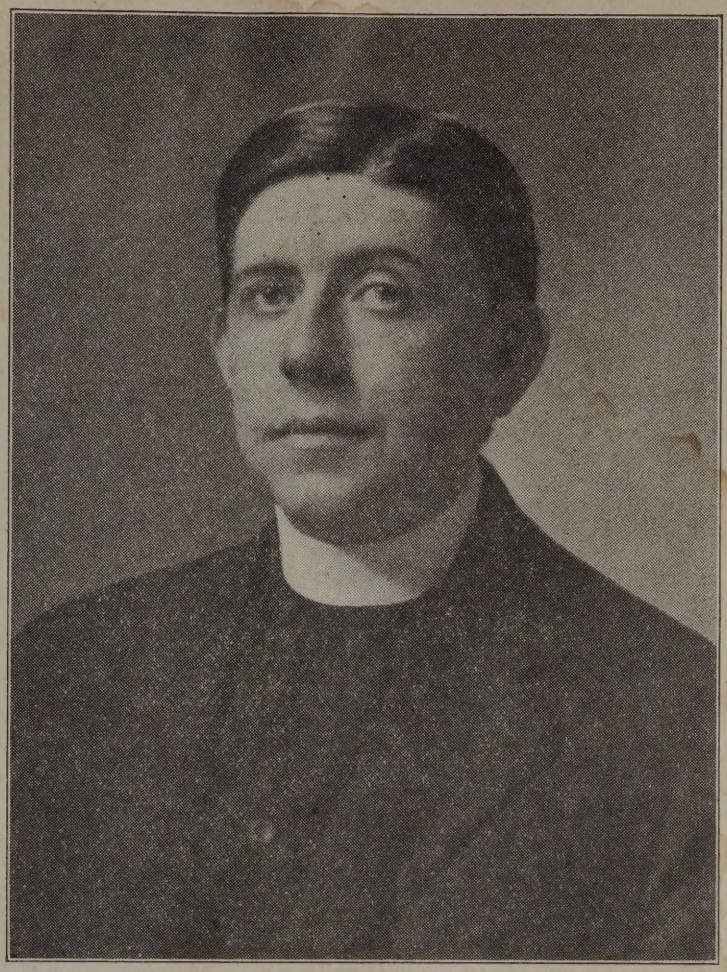
REV. JOHN I. MORAN

Rev. John I. Moran, for seventeen years pastor of the Church of the Sacred Heart, died suddenly at St. Elizabeth's Hospital, May 14, 1923.

Prior to becoming pastor of the church there he was for three years attached to the church apostolate in Cleveland. He was known as a brilliant orator and a forceful speaker. His sermons and services always attracted large gatherings because of these characteristics.

He was ordained by Bishop Horstmann in Cleveland in 1902. He graduated from grammar schools and St. Ignatius' College in Cleveland, and later graduated from the seminary in St. Paul, Minn., and from St. Mary's Seminary, Baltimore.

Immediately after his ordination he served for two years as assistant to the pastor of the Sacred Heart Church in Youngstown, after this he was assigned to the Cleveland apostolate.



REV. ALEXANDER A. BUTLER

The Rev. Alexander A. Butler was born in Cleveland, Ohio, Immaculate Conception parish, July, 1888, the son of Patrick H. Butler and Julia A. Sidley. He was but four years of age when his father died, and the year following, his mother took him with her to Springfield, Ohio, where she acted in the capacity of housekeeper for her brother, the Very Rev. Dean Sidley.

Alexander attended St. Raphael's School there, completed the eight grades and two years high school. September, 1903, he went to the Brothers of Mary College, Dayton, Ohio. In February, 1904, his uncle, Dean Sidley, having died, he returned with his mother to Cleveland, completed his course at the Jesuit College, and his seminary course at St. Mary's, Baltimore, Md. He was ordained May 11, 1912, at St. John's Cathedral by the late Bishop John P. Farrelly, D. D.

Ill health prevented him from doing much work. During the absence of Rev. Father N. J. Franche, he acted as chaplain for four months at Villa Maria Convent, Lowellville, Ohio. He then became assistant to the pastor at St. Ann's, Youngstown, Ohio, but only for a few weeks; he was six months with Rev. Father Sullivan at Chattanooga, Tenn., and the same length of time as chaplain at the National Soldiers' Home, Johnson City, Tenn. He was about eight years in the following sanatoriums—Gabriels, N. Y., The Glockner, Colorado Springs, and St. Vincent's, Sante Fe, N. M. In February, 1922, he came on to St. Joseph's Retreat, Dearborn, Mich., where he died June 19, 1922.

His funeral took place at St. John's Cathedral. Burial in Calvary Cemetery.

REV. MICHAEL V. HALTER

The Rev. Michael V. Halter, pastor of St. Mary's Church, Brookpark Rd., Cleveland, Ohio, died in St. John's Hospital, Cleveland, March 31, 1923.

He was born in Corry, Pennsylvania. After receiving his early training in Cory, he decided to study medicine in the Cleveland College of Physicians and Surgeons, now affiliated with the Western Reserve University. He was graduated in 1904 and he immediately started the practice of medicine in Akron, where his family had located in 1903.

In his practice he endeared himself to all by his assiduous and disinterested care of the sick and by his charity to the poor. He lived the life of an exemplary Catholic layman, sincerely devoted to all the activities of the church.

In 1910 he gave up his practice to study for the priesthood. His philosophical course was made in the University of Notre' Dame. He was honored by being assigned to the study of theology in the North American College, Rome, Italy. He was ordained in St. John's Lateran by Cardinal Bisletti, May 29, 1915.

After a temporary assignment to Holy Trinity Church, Avon, he was appointed assistant to the Rev. James B. Mooney, pastor of St. Mary's Church, Elyria.

His noble self-sacrificing character and his willing and genial disposition won him the genuine affection of the entire city of Elyria.

In September, 1918, he was appointed pastor of St. Mary's Church, West Park. He immediately set about building up this parish. The church was beautifully frescoed. New vestments and sacred vessels were purchased. His plans for the development of the parish school were never realized owing to the severe illness that marked his final years.

The funeral services in his parish church were conducted by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. T. C. O'Reilly, D. D. LL. D.

The Right Reverend Bishop, in deference to his request that he be buried in the city that he loved, was the celebrant of the pontifical mass of requiem in St. Vincent's Church, Akron, Ohio, on April 4, 1923.

The large attendance at these final obsequies paid a glorious testimony to the place he occupied in the hearts of the Catholics of Akron. May he rest in peace.
